Workshop on Strategic Issues for Young Scholars

November 6 to 10, 2017 | Central University of Gujarat, Gandhinagar

About the Workshop

The workshop on strategic issues for Young Scholars is jointly organized by Centre for Security Studies, School of International Studies, Central University of Gujarat, Gandhinagar and Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Washington D.C. The primary objective of the workshop is capacity-building in the next generation of scholars in the field of International Relations and Strategic Studies.

Debates on international relations and strategic issues in India have largely been based and been Delhi centric. This workshop seeks to selected about 25-30 young research scholars and academics from all over India and bring them together for this workshop in Gandhinagar, Gujarat.

Workshop Faculty

The workshop will draw faculty members from various academic institutions, think tanks and scientific and R&D institutions based in India.

In order for the students to get exposed to national security decision-making, we propose to reach out to the members of the Indian diplomatic corps and members of the national security establishment to deliver lectures the participants of the workshop. Members from the Carnegie Institute for International Peace, Washington D.C. will also be delivering lectures to the participants.
