F.No.1-66/2014-Admn./ 2278

18th July, 2016

Notice

It has been observed by the University Administration that various students' organizations undertake programmes, events, activities and celebrations without prior approval/permission from the University authorities and on many occasions the University authorities are held responsible and accountable for any lapses or untoward incident during such occasions by the Regulating Agencies and Departments. On occasions, such activities may also disturb peace and harmony on the University Campus. Hence, by the directions of Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, all the concerned are hereby instructed that no programmes, events, activities and celebrations shall be organized on the University premises by any organization without the prior explicit approval of the University authorities. Any violation of these instructions will warrant strict disciplinary action.
